GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. Those purchasing tickets shall have the right to a total or partial refund of the amount paid for the ticket in the event that the session or day of tennis is cancelled or significantly modified, except in cases where the cancellation or significant modification occurs once the match to be played in said session is already underway or is caused by force majeure. A change of player for another in the same category or a change of one match for another agreed by the ATP and/or WTA shall not be considered significant, whatever the reason for the change, in accordance with section 2.1.E of the terms and conditions. By purchasing tickets for any tournament session, the purchaser is guaranteed by MTP, at least, one match organised by ATP or WTA. MTP is subject to the changes to the official session schedule due to decisions by both the ATP and WTA.

Except for the cases stated in the two previous paragraphs, the purchase of any ticket for any edition of the Mutua Madrid Open is final once it has been completed and exchanges or refunds will not be allowed.

2. Tickets will not be replaced in the event of their loss, misplacement, theft or similar.

3. Spectators may access the Caja Magica premises at the start of the purchased session, check schedules before arrival.

4. The Organisers of the Tournament, Madrid Trophy Promotion S.L. (hereinafter MTP) may, in the event of force majeure or for other reasons provided in the in-force legislation and in the terms provided therein, change or modify the timetable and schedule for the event. MTP undertakes to announce such changes as soon as possible and, in all cases, as soon as the competition department makes the information public.

5. if it is not possible to correctly read the electronic validation and/or QR modules on a ticket and/or a ticket shows signs of falsification, MTP reserves the right to refuse its holder access to the venue.

6. Upon entry, spectators may be subject to a search in accordance with the law.

7. No ticket holder or spectator may: a) continuously collect, distribute, transmit, publish or disclose information pertaining to any results or statistical data related to any match while it is being played from within tournament premises (from the beginning of a match to the end, for commercial purposes or gaming / gambling); b) film, photograph, broadcast, disseminate, publish, transmit and/or, in general, offer to the public (or help a third party offer to the public), live or deferred, completely or partially, free of charge or for a fee, any recording of sound, photography, video sequences, moving images, film or other audiovisual content captured on any media within the tournament premises (except as permitted in the Tournament Accreditation Policy).

The continuous use of personal computers or handheld electronic devices within the limits (spectator zone) of the tournament's competition courts is prohibited, with the exception of duly accredited members of the media, tournament suppliers and tournament personnel when they are using them in order to perform their duties.

8. Entering the premises with bottles, cans, coolers or other objects that may be considered dangerous by MTP will not be permitted.

9. MTP reserves the right of admission under the terms provided in the applicable law and regulations (see complete terms and conditions on www.mutuamadridopen.com). Complaints forms are available to customers. Any complaints received from customers who hold the status of consumers according to the terms of the in-force legislation will be processed by MTP's customer service; they may be sent to any of the contacts provided and will be responded to in the appropriate format within a maximum term of 30 days. In the event of a negative response, the consumer may contact the consumer agency of their autonomous community or appeal to the platform for Regulation (EU) No 524/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 May 2013 on online dispute resolution for consumer disputes (<http://ec.europa.eu/odr>).

10. Once the ticket holder has left the venue, they will not be allowed to re-enter.

11. Prices include VAT.

12. Each ticket includes a €2.00 surcharge for administration expenses.

13. On behalf of MTP, we process the information provided to us in order to provide the service requested. The data provided shall be preserved while the commercial relationship persists or for as many years as necessary in order to comply with the legal obligations. The data will not be transferred to third parties except in the event that there is a legal obligation to do so. You have the right to obtain confirmation of whether or not we, MTP, are processing your personal data, therefore you have the right to access your personal data, rectify incorrect data or request the deletion of the data when they are no longer necessary.

14. Terms and conditions apply without prejudice to that provided in any applicable mandatory legislation.
